Name: Truman ANDRUS

Sex: M

Birth: ABT 1836 in Pennsylvania

Note:

Alias: Thomas /Broadwell/

REFN: 1741

Truman was my great grandfather. There is VERY little information on him and even less on his wife Charlotte Boardwell who I have been told was a native american. They had one daughter and seven sons but info is less than scarce. According to my grandfather, when Charlotte died in May 1881 he ran away to live on the Indian reservation and in order to do so was required to assume her maiden name. True or not true I don't know. I grew up with the name Boardwell. My grandfather's name was Thomas Lee. I had a woman e-mail me saying she had a Thomas Charles Lee Andrus b. Oregon who's parents were Truman Andrus and Charlett Borduea. She had Thomas wife and children from PA. The children had very unique names: Eva Elida, Nora Aldora and Lenard Truman. Eva was her grandmother and was said to have cousin and 1/2 siblings she did not know because they were native americans -Judith Francis

Notes for William Williams:

<http://www.joycetice.com/clippings/tcobt250.htm>

WILLIAM L. WILLIAMS – On the morning of Friday June 21, 2002 the Lord called home His beloved servant William Lewis Williams after a brief stay at the Robert Packer Hospital. He was 51 years of age. Born in Sayre, Sept. 8, 1950 he was the son of Austin L. and Gladys Jane (Freeman) Williams. Bill's childhood and young adulthood were spent in Leolyn, just south of Canton. He attended the Canton Area Schools and was a graduate of Canton High School. He was employed for several years at the Williamsport water treatment plant. After physical limitations restricted his working capabilities Bill became a self-employed handyman. For the past 18 years, he lived in Athens and when his health failed he became a resident of Bradford County Manor. Bill enjoyed life's simple pleasures, the company of family and friends, the beauty of the sunrise and sunset and the excitement of the local livestock auctions, which he attended regularly every Monday at the Athens stockyard. Bill had a lifelong walk with the Lord and was a devoted member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Athens, where he served for many years as a deacon. He took his deacon responsibilities very seriously, caring for the less-fortunate and ministering to the sick and shut-ins. Bill was kind and patient, always ready to extend the olive branch and smooth things over between quarreling factions. He lived by the Beatitude, "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." Now God has called His child unto Himself. Bill is survived by his mother, Gladys Woodward of Canton RR 2; brother, Andrew and Sue) Williams of Williamsport; sister, Alice Williams of Canton RR 2; niece, Tammy, nephew, Timmy; one great-niece; two great-nephews and many cousins. He was preceded in death by his father, Austin L. Williams. Relatives and friends are invited to the viewing and time of fellowship in celebration of Bill's life Tuesday, June 25 from 10 a.m. to noon at Morse and Kleese Funeral Home Inc., 40 N. Center St., Canton. Memorial contributions in Bill's name may be directed to the Seventh-day Adventist Church of Athens, the Seventh-day Adventist Church of Canton or the charity of one's choice. –Towanda Daily Review
