

Some excursions were made on open flat cars on the Sones narrow gauge railroad. This one was enroute to Eagles Mere in 1904 while stopped at Lewis' maple grove. Among those in foreground: A. Lewis, E.J. Wager, Margaret Wager, Josie B. Lewis and Frankford Lewis.

A Sunday excursion train from Hills Grove to Eagles Mere.